Day 3

Please stand for the singing of O Canada (please pick one)

The Simcoe County District School Board acknowledges that we are situated on the traditional land of the Anishnaabeg people. We acknowledge the enduring presence of First Nations, Metis and Inuit people on this land and are committed to moving forward in the spirit of reconciliation and respect. Stayner is part of Treaty 18. Nottawasaga Purchase, signed on October 17, 1818.

School Oath

Today I have an obligation.

No longer will I be silent if you need help.

Silence is participation.

I refuse to participate in the problem.

We are all different, but we all deserve respect.

If you need help, come to me.

If I think you need help, I'm getting involved.

I've got your back.

This choice board will provide a variety of options for learning.

Not Quite Narwhal K-3 Choice Board

First, click on the link to the left to watch a read-aloud of Not Quite Narwhal by author Jessie Sima.

Next, choose at least one learning prompt from the grid below.

Then, share your learning.

A discussion prompt for families and children to explore and learn together:

We are sharing this choice board in recognition of Pride Month, a month where we celebrate the diversity of human relationships and families, recognize the history of LGBTQ+ changemakers and their allies, and work together to create more inclusive spaces for everyone. Discussions with your children about standing up for what is fair, interrupting exclusion and bullying, and being open to the diversity of all individuals and families, can make a positive impact on our school and community.

Kelp goes on a big journey in this book. Can you make a timeline of the story that shows Kelp's journey?

Kelp was fearful that his narwhal friends wouldn't accept Kelp once they found out that Kelp was a unicorn. How did they show that they did accept Kelp? How do you include others? Write or draw your response.

On the last page of the book, we see how the unicorns and narwhals come together. This shows unity. Draw a picture that shows what unity means to you.

Watch this read-aloud of Big Bob, Little Bob and learn about "boy toys" and "girl toys"?

What do you like in this book?

Think about what is special about your family.

Today there is a challenge from the Kindness Club:

While at recess look for someone that you don't know very well. Maybe they are in another class or even another grade. Introduce yourself and see if you can find a game to play together.

There will not be a Kindness Club meeting

POPCORN DAY!!!

Popcorn will be distributed in the front foyer at second break. We will call classes down but if teachers would prefer to take orders and collect money in your classrooms and just send your orders to the foyer, we can just send your popcorn to your room!

The bottom bubble is light blue and contains the word "OUTS" in bold, dark blue letters. The graphic is decorated with several small stars in yellow and light blue, scattered around the bubbles.

RECESS REMINDERS FROM THE OFFICE...

Some important recess reminders for our Wolfpack...

You can play with friends in ways that are safe and fun. That means you can keep your hands and feet to yourself.

You can be creative with games you play and remember to keep them fair and inclusive.

When we do this we can all have a fun recess where everyone feels safe and respected.

Work together because #We'veGotYourBack
