School Oath

Today I have an obligation.

No longer will I be silent if you need help.

Silence is participation.

I refuse to participate in the problem.

We are all different, but we all deserve respect.

If you need help, come to me.

If I think you need help, I'm getting involved.

I've got your back.

Make this week one where you do something you have never tried!

A MONDAY DID
YOU KNOW MOMENT

Did you know that the Underground Railroad wasn't a railroad at all? It was a secret system of railroad terms that were used in helping fugitives escape slavery. Conductors (abolitionists) would send or receive parcels, dry goods or packages (Black men or women) to arranged destinations (safe houses). Various means of escape were used, by foot or in wagons with false bottoms or physical disguises. Freedom seekers crossing the border into Canada found refuge in various settlements throughout our province. Many settlements were stop-off places or terminals on the Underground Railroad leading to established communities such as Amherstburg, Puce, Sandwich, Dresden, Chatham, North Buxton, Fort Erie, Niagara Falls, St. Catharines and Ancaster.

Now did you know that Owen Sound and Collingwood were the two most northern terminals???

BOGGLE CHALLENGE for the Week

As a class, work together to come up with as many words as you can using the letters in the grid that is on the next slide. (Letters do not need to touch but you can only use the letter in the square once in a single word).

Write down all of the words your class can spell. Give each word 1 point. If a word has a long vowel word spelled CVCe, give that word 2 points. BONUS - If the word has ll, ff, ss, or zz at the end of the word following a short vowel sound, give that word 3 points. Total up your points.

Bring your point total to Mrs. Harrison by 2:00 on Thursday. The class with the most points will win a prize! And, Mrs. Harrison will do one of that class' teacher's duties (of their choice) next week.

BOGGLE CHALLENGE for the Week

RECESS REMINDERS FROM THE OFFICE...

Some important recess reminders for our Wolfpack...

You can play with friends in ways that are safe and fun. That means you can keep your hands and feet to yourself.

You can be creative with games you play and remember to keep them fair and inclusive.

You can play in the snow and have fun building, rolling and running while keeping snow on the ground.

When we do this we can all have a fun recess where everyone feels safe and respected.

Work together because #We'veGotYourBack
