

Tuesday, February 14
Day 1

The Simcoe County District School Board acknowledges that we are situated on the traditional land of the Anishnaabeg people. We acknowledge the enduring presence of First Nations, Metis and Inuit people on this land and are committed to moving forward in the spirit of reconciliation and respect. Stayner is part of Treaty 18. Nottawasaga Purchase, signed on October 17, 1818.

Please stand for the singing of O Canada

School Oath

Today I have an obligation.

No longer will I be silent if you need help.

Silence is participation.

I refuse to participate in the problem.

We are all different, but we all deserve respect.

If you need help, come to me.

If I think you need help, I'm getting involved.

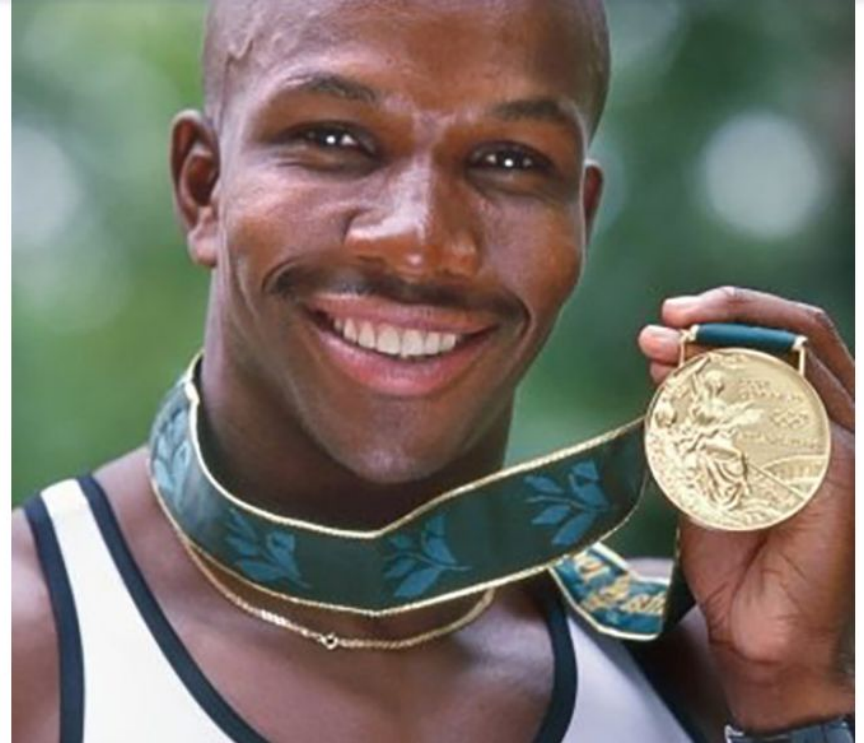

I've got your back.

Quote of the day...

Follow your passion, be prepared to work hard and sacrifice, and above all, don't let anyone limit your dreams.

Donovan Bailey is a retired Jamaican Canadian sprinter and the first man in history to be world champion, Olympic champion and world record holder at the same. Donovan Bailey inspires us to keep working hard to achieve our dreams, regardless of anyone who might tell us to give up.

CELEBRATING

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

FEBRUARY

“For me, education means to inspire people to live more abundantly, to learn to begin with life as they find it
and make it better.”

Carter G. Woodson
Father of Black History Month

This week, we continue to look at sharing the stories and voices that are part of our continued learning about and of Black History Month at Clearview Meadows and honour them and their work.

Today, we take a moment to recognize the Honourable Dr. Jean Augustine who was not only the first Black woman MP to be elected to the House of Commons, but sought to have February known as Black History Month in Canada...

Jean Augustine

Dr. Jean Augustine P.C., C.M., O.Ont., C.B.E. is the first African-Canadian woman to be elected to the House of Commons. She was elected in the riding of Etobicoke-Lakeshore in 1993 and sat in Parliament until 2006. During this time, she served as Parliamentary Secretary to the Prime Minister, Minister of State and Deputy Speaker.

In 2007, Dr. Jean Augustine was nominated by the Government of Ontario as Fairness Commissioner, a position created to advocate for Canadians with foreign credentials. Dr. Augustine retired from the position of Fairness Commissioner in March 2015.

Among Dr. Augustine's many achievements and honours includes leading the motion that allowed for the placement of the Famous Five statue on Parliament Hill in Ottawa, and the motion that created Black History Month in Canada.

Mystery Reader

This week the book has been chosen for you because it is very special to this Mystery Reader. Read the clues and see if you can guess who the Mystery Reader is. (No form this week but see if you can guess who it is).

Clue 1: I am an actress and author.

Clue 2: I wrote the book based on my own life experience.

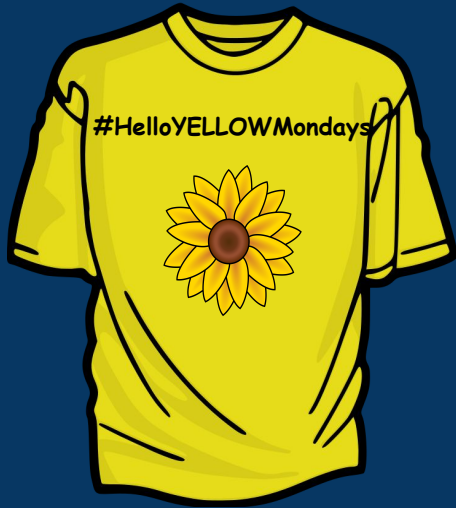

Mindful Moment

Visit the virtual calming room and choose a calming music or video.
